"The New York Times," page 26, dated June 15, 1965, carried a news item entitled "Left-Wing Student Group Elects New President." This article indicated Carl Ogelsby was elected President of the "Students for a Democratic Society." He is described as a 23-year-old graduate of the University of Michigan who formerly was head of the technical writing department of the Systems Division of the Bendix Corporation. He left this position to work full time for the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) (u)

This same article indicated that one Jeffrey Shero, a student at the University of Texas, Austin, Texas, was elected Vice President of the SDS.

Bureau files contain no information identifiable with these individuals other than racial activities of Shero, which is already in possession of San Antonio. Detroit and San Antonio are instructed to open security-type investigations concerning these individuals. These investigations should be conducted in accordance with Section 87D of the Manual of Instructions. Contact at the University of Michigan and University of Texas should be confined to established sources. Re: Inter University Committee For Reference is made to memorandum at New York, captioned as above, and dated July 1, 1965.

An article appeared in the "Ann Arbor News",
Ann Arbor, Michigan, July 22, 1965, captioned, "Vietnamese Said Critical of U.S.". This article, in part, contains the following information:

Article states that Carl Oglesby of Ann Arbor, Michigan, President of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), and two other members of the "teach-in protest against U.S. policy", Professors Robert S. Browne of Fairleigh Dickinson University, and Jonathan Mirsky, Pennsylvania State University, made up a fact-finding mission to sound out Vietnamese opinion on questions associated with intensifying the Viet Nam conflict. The article states that Mirsky was still in Viet Nam but that Oglesby had returned from Viet Nam, July 21, 1965.

Oglesby is quoted in this article as stating "all political groups in Saigon, both left and right, are critical of U.S. policy in Viet Nam". He and the Professors, according to the article, made what they called informal and indirect contact with spokesmen of the National Liberation Front.

This article states the trip to Viet Nam by the above-named individuals was made under sponsorship of the Inter University Committee for Debate on Foreign Policy.
Article states Oglesby expects to move to Chicago in several weeks to take up duties at the SDS National Headquarters, located at Chicago, Illinois. Article further states that his mission to Viet Nam was financed by donations solicited by that organization.

A characterization of SDS appears in the appendix hereto.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

A source advised on February 22, 1964, that at a meeting of the Portland (Oregon) Communist Party Youth Club held on February 20, 1964, a report was given by JAMES R. BERLAND of the Reed College Communist Party Youth Club concerning a meeting of the National Party Youth Commission (Communist Party) previously held in New York City. BERLAND reported that one of the four main points taken up in the New York City meeting concerned the SDS and its problems. BERLAND indicated that SDS was weak rationally but some local chapters were strong. It was noted that the SDS has an incorrect political orientation, being too far left on some issues and not far enough on others, and that the SDS does not follow the Marxist theory for the most part. One speaker said that the Party could work through SDS to achieve the aims of the Communist Party.

As a result of this meeting of the National Party Youth Commission, it was decided to work through SDS where there are strong local SDS chapters.

Re Detroit airtel and letterhead memorandum to Bureau dated 7/24/65 captioned "INTER UNIVERSITY COMMITTEE FOR DEBATE ON FOREIGN POLICY, INFORMATION CONCERNING - INTERNAL SECURITY; CARL OGLESBY, SM - SDS; COMINFIL SDS - IS - C."

A review of the files of the Chicago Office reveal that the Detroit Division has received copies of all communications in possession of the Chicago Office concerning CARL OGLESBY with the exception of the information set forth in Chicago airtel and letterhead memorandum to Director dated August 9, 1965, captioned "CHICAGO PEACE COUNCIL, IS - C." Information in part contained in this airtel and letterhead memorandum is set forth below:

Chicago Intelligence Division, Chicago Police Department, advised on August 6, 1965, that approximately 500 to 550 people were in attendance at a rally held on August 5, 1965, at the McCormick Plaza, Chicago, Illinois, under the auspices of the Chicago Peace Council, on behalf of Viet Nam in commemoration of Hiroshima. Source advised that the rally was chaired by Rabbi JACOB WEINSTEIN. WEINSTEIN, in opening the rally, made a brief speech in which he pointed out that the United States had "no business being in Viet Nam" and the only thing that is being accomplished by participation in the Viet war is the wanton killing of young Americans.

[redacted] advised that at the annual meeting of the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR), which was held in Chicago on March 17, 1963, it was announced that Rabbi JACOB WEINSTEIN had resigned as a member of the CCDBR Board of Officers because of pressure of other responsibilities.

WEINSTEIN introduced a Japanese Minister, who he said was part of a peace mission from Japan, currently in the United States. This individual read a prepared text which was difficult to understand because of his Japanese accent.

[redacted] further advised that AL RABY, a Chicago Civil Rights leader, also spoke at this rally, in which he stated that the Civil Rights Movement, Civil Liberation Movement and the Peace Movement all had the same goals and should unite and work together because not any one of these movements could exist solely by itself. [redacted] said CARL OGLESBY, President of Student for a Democratic Society, also spoke at this affair, emphasizing that the United States should withdraw from Viet Nam because they were looked upon with disfavor by the world, the Viet Cong, and the Viet Namese, whom they pretend to be helping. OGLESBY said that he had recently returned from Viet Nam and from his contact with American soldiers he was convinced that morale is extremely low and there is considerable dissension in the American ranks.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE FOR REPEAL OF THE MC CARRAN ACT, Formerly

Repeal the McCarran Act (1963)

CG 100-42010

The National Committee for Repeal of the McCarran Act (NCRMA) maintains headquarters in Room 318, 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A source advised in May, 1964, that the NCRMA, formerly known as the National Committee to Repeal the McCarran Act, was the outgrowth of an Ad Hoc Committee of Initiators, [redacted] of New York, who solicited signatures to a Petition to the President of the United States in 1962 which called for the repeal of the McCarran Act. The NCRMA held its formation meeting at Chicago on May 18, 1963; the stated purpose of the committee is to seek repeal of the Internal Security Act of 1950 as amended.

b6

A second source advised in May, 1964, that the Communist Party, USA (CP) interest in NCRMA has been to give it full support and approval, and it takes the position that the committee composition must be extremely broad and the Party's direct influence must be kept to a minimum. The CP believes the new committee will serve its purpose in fighting the McCarran Act alone and the CP has everything to gain by taking this position. [redacted]

b7C

[redacted] is not a CP member, but knowingly accepts support and advice from the CP leadership on behalf of this committee.

CLYDE MILLER, according to the "Daily Worker," issue of March 5, 1941, was a signer of a statement to the President defending the CP.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast communist daily newspaper which ceased publication January 13, 1958.

CHICAGO COMMITTEE TO DEFEND THE BILL OF RIGHTS

CG 100-42010

The Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR) maintains headquarters in Suite 424, 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A source advised in July, 1960, that RICHARD CRILEY, then a member of the Civil Liberties Commission, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, met with key leaders of the Communist Party of Illinois and discussed with them the fact that the climate in the United States on civil liberties and civil rights issues had changed to the extent that it was now possible to proceed to form a new organization with broad mass support. By doing so, CRILEY believed that people who would not associate themselves with an organization of narrow scope would join a civil liberties and civil rights organization built around a broader issue such as the abolishment of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). The CP leaders, after receiving assurance from CRILEY that any new organization that might evolve would protect the Party interests, authorized CRILEY to proceed with his plan to form a broader organization.

A second source advised on October 31, 1960, that a new organization known as the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights was formally launched in Chicago at a meeting on October 26, 1960. The stated primary purpose of the new organization was to seek the abolition of the HCUA, and RICHARD CRILEY was named as its Executive Secretary, after having been the guiding force in arranging the October 26, 1960, meeting.

The first source in October, 1960, advised that CRILEY again attended a meeting of the Illinois District CP leadership on October 28, 1960, at which time he reported on the organizational meeting of the CCDBR. CRILEY stated the immediate purpose of his organization is to obtain mass support to abolish the HCUA, but the new Committee purposes will also include defense of Smith Act and Taft-Hartley victims. He said there will be no formal affiliation with any national organization of similar purpose; however, the CCDBR, according to CRILEY, will consult and have liaison with national organizations having the same purpose. According to the source, the CP leadership agreed with the general direction of the CCDBR as outlined by CRILEY.

A third source advised on May 11, 1964, that the CCDBR continues to adhere to the same aims and purposes, with RICHARD CRILEY as Executive Director; however, its Board of Directors has been expanded to include additional members of the clergy, educators and labor representatives, not known to be CP members.

It is to be noted that there is no characterization presently available concerning the Chicago Peace Council. There is insufficient subversive information in the Chicago files to characterize CARL OGLESBY and AL RABY (mentioned in this letter).

Chicago will continue to remain alert for activities of CARL OGLESBY and for any information indicating that he has moved from Detroit to Chicago. The Bureau and Detroit Division will be kept informed of developments in this matter.

All informants used in this letter have furnished reliable information in the past.

Re: Communist Infiltration of Students for a Democratic Society

An article appeared in the "Ann Arbor News", Ann Arbor, Michigan, June 15, 1965, Page 24, captioned "Three Actions Set in Protest Movement". The article reports the results of a Viet Nam protest rally held on the campus of the University of Michigan (U of M), Ann Arbor, Michigan, on that date during a visit to the U of M campus by Astronauts James Mc Divitt and Edward White. The article states the rally was sponsored by the Voice Political Party, U of M campus affiliate of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS). (U)

The article states that Carl Oglesby of Ann Arbor, newly elected President of the National SDS said in Kewadin, near Traverse City (Michigan), that the society is considering plans - including possible deliberate violations of United States espionage laws - to try to force the Government to defend its Viet Nam position in court. (U)

The article further quoted Oglesby as stating "It occurred to us that it may be a good idea to put the administration into a trial situation. One way would be through a deliberate infraction of the 1917 Espionage Act." The article states that one method of attacking the act would be to distribute pamphlets in or near Army bases, urging soldiers to refuse to fight in Viet Nam. (U)

This article describes Oglesby as a 29 year old U of M graduate. (U)

A characterization of the SDS appears in the appendix attached hereto. (U)

[redacted] advised that Carl Oglesby, born July 30, 1935, at Akron, Ohio, was employed with Bendix Systems Division since December 10, 1958, as a technical writer. He said Oglesby voluntarily and without notice terminated his employment with this firm June 8, 1965. At the time of his termination he was employed as Supervisor of Technical Editing of this firm.

(u)

He was granted a "Secret" security clearance January 5, 1959, by the United States Air Force and held that security clearance at the time of his separation from employment with the Bendix Systems Division.

[redacted] advised that Oglesby was regarded as a brilliant writer and reportedly was an award winning playwright. He said he was an industrious employee. He advised that on Oglesby's termination of employment he gave as his reason to "accept other employment", and furnished a forwarding address as care of SDS, 1103 East 63rd Street, Chicago, Illinois.

compromise of security information, nor any reason to suspect any intention on Oglesby's part to compromise security information. He noted, however, that the sensitive nature of the work handled by the Bendix Systems Division to which Oglesby had access through his employment while employed here, could, if misused, prove prejudicial to the security interests of the United States.

Confidential Informant DE T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on April 14, 1965, made available a copy of a leaflet distributed at a Detroit Committee to End the War in Viet Nam rally held at Wayne State University April 14, 1965. The printed leaflet is in the form of a critical appraisal of President Johnson's John Hopkins speech on Viet Nam. The leaflet bears the date April 8, 1965, and bears the name Carl Oglesby, not otherwise identified, as one of its two authors. The leaflet bears no identification with any specific organization.

The "Michigan Daily", U of M publication at Ann Arbor, Michigan, under date of May 13, 1965, carried an article captioned "Final Plans Set For Teach-In". The article reports arrangements for a local teach-in at the U of M, Ann Arbor, Michigan, on May 15, 1965, scheduled to participate in a radio hook-up with a national "teach-in" held that day at Washington, D. C., and sponsored by the Inter-University Committee for a Possible Hearing on Viet Nam.

The article, in stating the proposed program for the U of M teach-in, states that on completion of the national portion of the national teach-in broadcast that date a summation of the debate and the Viet Nam issue would be given by three individuals, including Carl Oglesby, identified in the article as a member of the peace, research and education project of the SDS.

APPENDIX

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

A source advised on February 22, 1964, that at a meeting of the Portland (Oregon) Communist Party Youth Club held on February 20, 1964, a report was given by JAMES R. BERLAND of the Reed College Communist Party Youth Club concerning a meeting of the National Party Youth Commission (Communist Party) previously held in New York City. BERLAND reported that one of the four main points taken up in the New York City meeting concerned the SDS and its problems. BERLAND indicated that SDS was weak nationally but some local chapters were strong. It was noted that the SDS has an incorrect political orientation, being too far left on some issues and not far enough on others, and that the SDS does not follow the Marxist theory for the most part. One speaker said that the Party could work through SDS to achieve the aims of the Communist Party.

As a result of this meeting of the National Party Youth Commission, it was decided to work through SDS where there are strong local SDS chapters.

The following is a characterization of the SDS:

A source advised on February 22, 1964, that at a meeting of the Portland (Oregon) Communist Party Youth Club held on February 20, 1964, a report was given by JAMES R. BERLAND of the Reed College Communist Party Youth Club concerning a meeting of the National Party Youth Commission (Communist Party) previously held in New York City. BERLAND reported that one of the four main points taken up in the New York City meeting concerned the SDS and its problems. BERLAND indicated that SDS was weak nationally but some local chapters were strong. It was noted that the SDS has an incorrect political orientation, being too far left on some issues and not far enough on others, and that the SDS does not follow the Marxist theory for the most part. One speaker said that the Party could work through SDS to achieve the aims of the Communist Party. (U)

II. CONNECTIONS WITH SDS

A. Presidency

"The Michigan Daily", a student publication at U of M, Ann Arbor, Michigan, dated June 16, 1965, carried an article entitled "SDS Convention Explores Educational (U)

DE 100-33032

Policies". This article concludes with a statement that at the close of its plenary session the SDS national convention held at Kewadin, Michigan, June, 1965, elected CARL OGLESBY to serve as President for the coming year. The article described OGLESBY as 30 years of age, and as having graduated from the U of M in 1961, noting that in that year he won a major Hopwood drama award at the U of M. The article notes that OGLESBY was the fifth SDS President in a row to have studied at the U of M.

The "Ann Arbor News", a daily newspaper published at Ann Arbor, Michigan, under date June 15, 1965, carried an article entitled "Three Actions Set in Protest Movement". This article states in part as follows:

"Carl Oglesby of Ann Arbor, newly elected president of the national Students for a Democratic Society said in Kewadin, near Traverse City, that the society is considering plans -- including possible deliberate violation of U.S. espionage laws -- to try to force the government to defend its Viet Nam position in court.

"Up to 200 U-M students belong to the society and Oglesby, 29 year-old U-M graduate, said that if the society's council approves the plan, it still would have to be voted on by the group's 2,000 members.

"'It occurred to us that it may be a good idea to put the Administration into a trial situation,' Oglesby said. 'One way would be through a deliberate infraction of the 1917 Espionage Act.'

"Oglesby said the act forbids the advocacy that a member of the U.S. Armed Forces desert the army or refuse to do battle for the country.

"Oglesby added one method of attacking the act would be to distribute pamphlets in or near Army bases urging soldiers to refuse to fight in Viet Nam."

DE 100-33032

"The New York Times", a daily newspaper published at New York, under date of June 15, 1965, page 26, carried a news item entitled "Left-wing Student Group Elects New President". The article states that CARL OGLESBY was elected President of the SDS and describes him as a graduate of the U of M who was employed formerly as head of the Technical Writing Department of the Systems Division of the Bendix Corporation noting that he had left that position to work full time for the SDS.

B. National Convention

DE T-2 advised on June 15, 1965, that the National Convention of the SDS was held during the week of June 7, 1965, at Camp Maplehurst, Kewadin, Michigan. The informant advised that CARL OGLESBY, who was elected President of the SDS, at this convention, was in attendance during the convention. Informant advised that CARL OGLESBY at this convention on June 13, 1965, addressed the convention explaining what his workshop had covered. Informant advised that his comments in this address were in part as follows:

(U)

"Philosophy of SDS involvement in foreign policy issue --we decided SDS should be involved in foreign policy and given that we want to educate ourselves in this political involvement. We should understand with whom we deal and how they relate to life and politics in this country. We build movements around things that affect people, as with Vietnam and the Dominican Republic. To live in the United States now is not to have the opportunity for total involvement in cold war issues.

(U)

"Vietnam was thrust upon us and we didn't have time to decide, but South Africa is different, it is our creation. SDS does not want to be in a position where they simply respond to some new outrage of the JOHNSON Administration. SDS should relate to this ferment not by becoming an advocate of the cold war but by turning this into a massive protest movement. SDS must attain some initiative not just react to whims of the government."

(U)

OGLESBY said there were some who felt "foreign policy for SDS was suicidal, impossible, ridiculous, or all three. While we want to be careful about associating with this or that country we still feel SDS should more closely associate themselves with issues which not only affect us at home but overseas.

(U)

DE 100-33032

(U)

"People want to know if it is possible for the American government to make a decision overseas which we could officially endorse.

(U)

"People want to know and discuss international communism."

(U)

Informant additionally advised that among numerous pamphlets distributed at this SDS convention was a pamphlet entitled "The Vietnam War: World Revolution and American Containment" which identified its author as CARL OGLESBY.

C. National Council Meeting, SDS

DE T-3 advised on September 16, 1965, that CARL OGLESBY of Chicago, Illinois, was in attendance at the National Council Meeting of the SDS held at Camp McCormick in McCormick Creek, State Park, near Bloomington, Indiana, September 5 - 10, 1965. This meeting was opened to members of the SDS and representatives of other organizations as well as members of the National Council of SDS. It was called for discussions and to assist in determining policy of SDS in such matters as the draft, the war in Vietnam, relationship to other programs, and matters concerning organizational structure.

(U)

There was unanimous agreement that there should be a visible national "anti-draft program" whose purpose would not necessarily be to abolish the draft but to build an "anti-war" movement around the draft issue and possibly make a draft system function less smoothly.

D. Travel

1. Passport Information

The records of the Passport Office, United States Department of State (USDS) as of August 16, 1965, reflected that passport number F-489267 had been issued to OGLESBY on June 29, 1965, at Chicago, Illinois. In his application for the above passport dated June 28, 1965, at Ann Arbor, Michigan, OGLESBY stated that he planned to travel for two weeks to France, the Philippines, and Japan, and that the purpose of this travel was "research, pleasure." He stated that he planned to depart from Detroit, Michigan, on July 5, 1965, via Northwest Airlines. (U)

In the above application, OGLESBY listed his father as CARL P. OGLESBY, born in Cowpens, South Carolina, on March 29, 1903, and his mother as ALMA LOVING, born Richard City, Tennessee, on April 24, 1914. He stated that he was last married on [redacted] to [redacted] b6 (U) b7C born [redacted] and listed his permanent address as 916 Sunnyside, Ann Arbor, Michigan. OGLESBY listed his date and place of birth as July 30, 1935, at Akron, Ohio.

2. Saigon Trip

DE T-4 advised in June, 1965, that CARL OGLESBY, newly elected President of SDS, would travel on an all expense paid "teach-in" type tour to Paris, Algiers, and Saigon. Informant confirmed that OGLESBY would make the above referred to Saigon travel in July, 1965, and that he may also go to Tokyo, Japan, if he made contact with undisclosed sources while on his travel to Saigon, South Vietnam. (U)

An article appeared in the "Ann Arbor News", Ann Arbor, Michigan, July 22, 1965, page 3, captioned "Vietnamese Said Critical of U.S.". This article states that CARL OGLESBY, President of the SDS, had returned the previous day from Vietnam with the impression that "all political groups in Saigon, both left and right, are critical of U.S. policy in Viet Nam." (U)

The article states that OGLESBY and two other members of the "teach-in movement in protest against United States policy in that Asian nation" had made a fact finding mission to sound out Vietnamese opinion regarding the Vietnam war. (U)

In this article OGLESBY is quoted as having said "top men in Saigon, government officials, professors, wealthy Catholic businessmen and others, expressed the feeling (U) that this situation has deteriorated so far that everything possible must be done to make peace". The article continues quoting OGLESBY as saying, "They all feel that the U.S. has had an opportunity to help Viet Nam since 1954, but that all of its efforts have ended in failure.

~~SECRET~~

DE 100-33032

"Even the rightwingers feel that the Americans are not handling themselves well in the situation and that they don't care about what happens to the Vietnamese and are really only fighting against communism and China".

He said American soldiers who have been at the front say that "U.S. figures on casualties grossly exaggerate the number of Viet Cong killed and make gross understatements in respect to our side."

He and the professors made what they called informal and indirect contact with spokesmen for the National Liberation Front (NLF).

The article reports that the trip to Viet Nam was made by BROWNE, MIRSKY and OGLESBY under the sponsorship of the Inter-University Committee for Debate on Foreign Policy, a group which represents a continuation of the teach-in movement on a national level.

OGLESBY, a former technical writer for Bendix Systems Division here for a number of years, left the employment of that firm about a month ago to assume the national presidency of the Students for a Democratic Society. He expects to move to Chicago in about two weeks to take up his duties at the organization's national headquarters in that city. His fact finding mission to Viet Nam was financed by donations solicited by the society through its newsletter.

An article appeared in the "Michigan Daily", a student publication at U of M, Ann Arbor, Michigan, dated August 7, 1965, page 1, entitled, "Oglesby, Gitlin Discuss Southeast Asia Experience".

This article states that CARL OGLESBY, national President of the SDS, and Mrs. NANCY GITLIN, representing groups working for peace in Vietnam, spoke August 6, 1965, at a public meeting at the Ann Arbor, Michigan, Public

~~SECRET~~

DE 100-33032

Library regarding their recent fact finding missions in Southeast Asia. (U)

OGLESBY discussed his trip to South Vietnam describing that country as a "political ghetto". The article concerning OGLESBY's speech reports in part as follows: (U)

"He indicated that he had talked to people of every extreme of political ideology, and had discovered that the most pro-American view is one of fear of the Viet Cong combined with exasperation at the clumsiness and cruelty of the Americans in their prosecution of the war. (U)"

"The most important aspect of the mission was the conveyance of a new peace offer, which, Oglesby said, had come from reliable spokesmen who had extensive contact with the Viet Cong. The new peace proposal contained four points, the most important of which was a call for a cease-fire and negotiations without the prior condition that the United States withdraw its troops. (U)"

"Oglesby also received a similar peace proposal from a group of powerful, wealthy professionals and businessmen in the South who, although they feared the Viet Cong, wanted to find a way to peace at any cost. They did this even though they realized that free elections with the possibility of a Viet Cong victory might put them in a position of great danger." (U)

3. Tokyo Trip

DE T-4 advised on August 12, 1965, that subject was on that date departing for Tokyo, Japan, to address a "Tokyo Teach-In", and that he had intended to return to Chicago, Illinois, August 16, 1965, to be available to address a University of Chicago faculty meeting on August 17, 1965. (U)

The article refers to various events throughout the day followed by a "all night forum" on the topic "war and peace" to be held under the auspices of the Committee for Commemoration of August 15th, composed of a group of "cultured men" including Professor TAKEO KUWAHARA and Playwright KEN KAITAKA to be held at Tokyo, Japan, August 14 - 15, 1965. international congress concerned with peace and that an invitation had been directed to SDS from that congress, which invitation had been directed to the previous SDS President, PAUL POTTER. The invitation extended to U.S.A. (U) POTTER had included arrangements for his expenses to be paid by the World Peace Council.

Informant noted that SDS officers regarded this as an important international conference offering opportunities to establish international contacts important to SDS. The informant advised that subject said that he would like to attend but wished to clarify the matter of the invitation having been extended to his predecessor before making a decision to attend. (U)

E. Speeches

DE T-6 advised on July 4, 1965, that on July 2, 1965, the Detroit Committee to End the War in Vietnam sponsored "an evening with HARRY BELAFONTE" at Detroit, Michigan, at which subject spoke of the need to stop the atrocities being committed by the United States in Vietnam. Subject on this occasion emphasized the importance of the work being done in the Detroit area and said that other communities were watching efforts at Detroit in this regard. (U)

An article appeared in the "Detroit News", a daily publication at Detroit, Michigan, July 29, 1965, page 18, captioned "Viet Hearing Set Here By Law Makers". The article reports that two Michigan congressmen would hold an "unofficial" public hearing on the Vietnam war August 6 and 7, 1965, at Detroit, Michigan. Among the witnesses listed to appear at this hearing was listed CARL OGLESBY described as representing the SDS and noting that he had recently returned from Vietnam. (U)

DE T-7 advised on August 5, 1965, that some 500 people attended a rally held that date at McCormick Plaza, Chicago, Illinois, under the auspices of the Chicago Peace Council, on behalf of Vietnam and in commemoration of Hiroshima. The informant advised that subject spoke at this affair, emphasizing that the United States should withdraw from Vietnam because the United States was looked upon with disfavor by the Viet Cong and the Vietnamese. OGLESBY in this speech, according to the informant, said that he had (U)

III. MISCELLANEOUS

A. Bendix Employment

[redacted] and [redacted] Bendix Systems Division, Ann Arbor, Michigan, on June 17, 1965, contacted the Federal Bureau of Investigation making reference to an article which appeared in the "Ann Arbor News", Ann Arbor, June 15, 1965, referred to earlier in this report, as identifying subject as newly elected President of SDS and quoted subject as making reference to deliberate infraction of the 1917 Espionage Act. They advised that subject referred to in that article was until the immediate past an employee of their firm, who held a "secret" security clearance.

He said OGLESBY voluntarily and without notice terminated his employment with this firm June 8, 1965. At the time of his termination he was employed as Supervisor of Technical Editing of this firm.

[redacted] advised that OGLESBY was regarded as a brilliant writer and reportedly was an award winning playwright. He said he was an industrious employee. He advised that on OGLESBY's termination of employment he gave as his reason to "accept other employment", and furnished a forwarding address as care of SDS, 1103 East 63rd Street, Chicago, Illinois.

b7C

[redacted] Bendix Systems Division, Ann Arbor, Michigan, advised on June 17, 1965, that in view of CARL OGLESBY's termination of employment with his firm and in view of OGLESBY's present employment as reported in the press, he [redacted] has satisfied himself through careful review that all classified documents on all of the classified projects handled by his firm are accounted for.

He added from this company's experience with OGLESBY, he had no reason to suspect CARL OGLESBY of any compromise of security information, nor any reason to suspect any intention on OGLESBY's part to compromise security information. He noted, however, that the sensitive nature of the work handled by the Bendix Systems Division to which OGLESBY had access through his employment while employed here, could, if misused, prove prejudicial to the security interests of the United States.

Records of the Alumni Catalogue Office, U of M, referred to above, were found to contain a clipping from an unidentified publication bearing the date January 10, 1961, which states that a play by the subject, "Season of the Beast" would be produced at the U of M January 10 - 18, 1961. The play was described as the first major production of CARL P. OGLESBY then a student at the U of M. The article notes that this play was first produced at the Margo Jones Theatre, Dallas, Texas, three years previous. The article notes the play was to be directed by Professor WILLIAM P. HALSTEAD and described the play as a dramatic story of conflict in a family of North Carolina farmers.

(U)

A second clipping was located in these Alumni files bearing the date May 26, 1961, from an unidentified publication, referring to the presentation of the "Hopwood Awards", and described these awards as the largest cash awards for creative writing in the country. The article states the awards are from an endowment fund created by the will of the late AVERY HOPWOOD. The article states that CARL OGLESBY, of the U of M, had received the largest award in 1961, a cash award of $1,500.00 for his entry in the drama division "three plays".

A clipping from an unidentified publication dated March 24, 1965, states that a play by the subject entitled "The Hero" would be presented at the U of M May 28 - 29, 1965. playwright for a trilogy: "Season of the Beast", "The Peace-Maker", and "The Hero". The article states that the first two plays had already been produced at the U of M by Professor KENNETH ROWE. The article notes that one ARTHUR KENDALL was to direct "The Hero". (U)

An additional clipping was located in the Alumni records from an unidentified publication bearing the date December 3, 1964, referring to a play by the subject entitled "Peace Maker". The article describes this play as discussing a "moral issue" and poses the question as to whether when a man knows that an act of violence is inevitable he should try to stop it any way, and poses the question as whether being a moral man is worth it. The article states that the author leaves the answers to these questions to his audience. (U)

The article states that this play is based on the Hatfield-Mc Coy Vendetta of the post Civil War era. The article states the author referred to it as an "issue play", and basically an "anti-war" play. The article states that while physical force is the central theme of the play it demonstrates that social pressures and public opinion could exert some restraint against physical force. (U)

C. Inter-University Committee for Debate on Foreign Policy (IUCDFP)

DE T-8 advised on September 23, 1965, the IUCDFP is a national Vietnam protest type organization which maintains headquarters at the U of M, Ann Arbor, Michigan. He advised the organization grew out of incident at the U of M in March, 1965, when a group of some U of M faculty members threatened a one day "strike" in their classes in the nature of a Vietnam protest. He advised that the "teach-in" device was substituted for the "strike" action and the success of the initial "teach-in" succeeded in a repetition of that activity nation wide, largely under the encouragement of the IUCDFP. He advised this organization sponsored the "National Teach-In" held in Washington, D.C., May 15, 1965, supported the SDS "March on Washington" in April, 1965, sponsored a national television debate with MC GEORGE BUNDY of the White House staff, and most recently (U) held an international conference "Alternative Prospectives on Vietnam" at the U of M in September, 1965. He advised that all of the activities of this organization have generally involved a protest of the United States intervention in Vietnam. (U)

DE T-8 advised that CARL OGLESBY has been active at the U of M, Ann Arbor, with the IUCDFP in each of its activities which have involved activity on the U of M campus. Informant described subject as a playwright of some ability who has been employed with private industry at Ann Arbor, Michigan, until the recent past. He advised that subject has not been officially connected with the U of M either as a student or member of the faculty since about 1961. He advised that OGLESBY's name has been identified with those of a group of young faculty or graduate students who have assisted in the "teach-in" type seminars held at the U of M, at the original "teach-in" held in May, 1965, and at subsequent "teach-ins" held May 15, 1965, and September 18, 1965. OGLESBY stated that nothing had been done concerning this, but they were having a meeting the next day at Ann Arbor, Michigan, and that something had been decided concerning this as well as something concerning Saigon. OGLESBY stated that [redacted] had indicated he felt that OGLESBY should not go to the meeting in Saigon because OGLESBY was the President of the SDS and if the President went, it would look "political." Newark airtel and letterhead memorandum to the Bureau dated September 14, 1965, captioned "COMMINFIL STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY, IS - C" reveals the following information:

On September 10, 1965, Newark sources who have furnished reliable information in the past furnished the following information concerning National Council Meeting of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) at McCormick's Creek State Park, Bloomington, Indiana, from September 6, 1965, through September 9, 1965.

Approximately 100 to 150 people attended this conference. Among the chief items considered by the conference were the issues of avoid military service, opposition to United States participation in the fighting in Viet Nam and the organization and expansion of SDS.

Concerning military service, the workshop on Selective Service adopted the policy that opposition to military service should be confined to those measures which the council believed would not violate Federal law. The council was not unanimous in regard to this policy. Strong opposition came from [redacted] from New York SDS, who advocated measures including violation of existing Federal laws regarding Selective Service. He indicated privately that he had come from New York for the express purpose of advocating extreme measures to avoid military service. However, apparently pressure was put on him at the meeting not to press the issue. None of the recommendations made by [redacted] were adopted by the council.

The mainline of resistance to the draft adopted by the council rests on the achievement of Conscientious Objector status by Selective Service registrants. It was the plan of the council to flood local draft boards with innumerable Conscientious Objector cases. To this end it was agreed that a national Conscientious Objector counciling service be set up by SDS which would include ministers and lawyers as part of the staff.

Various plans were adopted to insure the widest dissemination of Conscientious Objector information including workshops, the setting up of information booths on college campuses and the distribution of propaganda to the mothers of draft age men, people in depressed areas, Negroes, and university students as well as ministers serving on college campuses.

Other forms of objection to military service included the adoption of proposals to harass military recruitment teams, marches on the offices of congressmen, harassing and marching on the homes of draft board members as well as suits to invalidate action taken by draft boards, where it can be established that their composition does not conform to the law.

It was also suggested that joining such organizations as Student Nonviolent Co-ordinating Committee (SNCC) was a legal means of avoiding the draft since some members of SNCC have been found politically unsuitable for service in the Armed Forces. It was also believed that membership in a Black Nationalist Group would constitute a legal basis for exemption from military service and, therefore, a proposal was adopted to recruit 25 Negroes to claim that they were Black Nationalists.

Concerning Viet Nam, the SDS position is best typified by a statement by the leadership that even if the Viet Cong were to settle for less than complete removal of United States troops from Viet Nam as a peace term, SDS would continue to demand removal of all troops from that country. Three SDS leaders, CARL OGLESBY, NANCY GITLIN, and CARL BLOICE reported that they had recently attended a meeting with members of the National Liberation Front (NLF) of the Viet Cong. It is their plan to visit various university campuses during the year to publicize this meeting and further SDS policy on Viet Nam.

Organizational plans adopted by the council included plans for setting up 80 additional SDS chapters on college campuses and the infiltration of the Students Association of Philadelphia by SDS.

Immediate plans for furtherance of SDS policies includes the SDS sponsorship of a program on October 15, 1965, and October 16, 1965, to be called the "International Days of Protest." Liaison has been established with student groups in Japan, France, and England so that marches, demonstrations, student strikes, conferences, and workshops can be held throughout the United States and the above-mentioned countries to protest for world peace.

A meeting of the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America and members of the New York Committee to End the War in Viet Nam was mentioned as being scheduled for the evening of September 10, 1965, at the home of [redacted]

[redacted] New York City, New York, to discuss action to be taken during the "International Days of Protest."

CG 100-42010

SDS committed itself to participation in a March on Washington, D. C. over the weekend of Thanksgiving, 1965, sponsored by the Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (SANE) to protest against United States policy in Viet Nam and demand the United States disarmament. The Sylvan Theatre in Washington, D. C. is to be the focal point of this march.

December 10, 1965, was set as the date for a SDS sponsored student strike throughout the United States, in which students would remain away from college campuses. Purpose of this tactic was described as intending to frighten United States industry with the idea that such strikes will prevent the education of future industrial leaders.

Sources mentioned in the above letterhead memorandum are [redacted] and [redacted] Newark sources of information in Princeton, New Jersey.

b6
b7C
b7D

New York airtel and letterhead memorandum to Bureau dated September 14, 1965, captioned "VIDEM" reveals the following information:

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available information on August 24, 1965, reflecting that a National Council ballot had been prepared by Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) setting forth several proposals for future activity. The ballot was the second one issued since there had been confusion over the proposals described in the first ballot.

Council members at large and chapter delegates were to consider these proposals and return the ballots by August 5, 1965, for announcement at the Assembly of Unrepresented People in Washington, D. C. on August 6.- August 9, 1965.

CG 100-42010

The ballot stated that in the first ballot, the Viet Nam Committee proposed that SDS call for and organize a student strike on October 15 and 16, 1965, to coincide with both the International Teach-In and activity planned by the West Coast people (a two day conference consisting of regional conferences and civil disobedience.) However, the committee recently learned that the dates of the International Teach-In were changed to October 8 and 9, 1965, and that CARL OGLESBY, on his trip to Saigon, had made contacts in Japan and France who urged the organization of an International Student Strike at the beginning of December.

The following proposals were given for consideration:

1) That the National Council endorse the idea of working with the West Coast people by encouraging chapters and Viet Nam Committees to devote the weekend of October 15 and 16, 1965, to Viet Nam activity, including regional conferences and perhaps demonstrations, rallies, or civil disobedience.

2) That the National Council give the Viet Nam Committee permission to announce an International Student Strike for the beginning of December, and begin negotiations with international groups to set a date and to discuss possible action.

Contacts had been made with international groups through CARL OGLESBY and through letters from several international groups, many of whom are calling for coordinated action with students from the United States.

3) That the National Council endorse the idea of a second SDS March on Washington for next Spring.

The second march would not be campus centered. It would attempt to involve other constituencies in the planning and organizing for the activity.

CG 100-42010

In line with proposal number 2 above, it was proposed that the march be internationalized. This would mean that delegations and speakers from various countries would attend; and, hopefully, comparable demonstrations would take place at the capitals of other countries on the same date.

4) That the National Council endorse the idea of the SDS Viet Nam Committee for the preparation of a pamphlet for men receiving their draft call. The pamphlet would describe the history of the war, give facts about the war, and perhaps contain letters from Servicemen in Viet Nam.

This pamphlet would be distributed at high schools, Army recruiting stations and bases, and at Army reserve meetings. It would serve primarily as an informative function and not necessarily urge Servicemen to commit themselves to any anti-war activity. //

It was stated that the main argument against writing and distributing this pamphlet is that it might be interpreted as a violation of Federal statutes which prohibit action interfering with Army recruitment. The effectiveness of this type of action was also considered in terms of visible results, and effects on either the war situation or the work in building a movement. However, the Committee felt the informative value of the pamphlet was significant and that it would be beneficial to plant doubts in the minds of young people eligible for service.

"The New York Times," Late City Edition, in its June 15, 1965, issue, on page 26, carried an article which stated that CARL OGELSBY had been elected President of SDS at its June, 1965, convention at Camp Maplehurst, Kewadin, Michigan.

The files of the Chicago Office also contain an article entitled, "Students Map Nationwide Anti-Draft Campaign," in regard to the recent SDS national council meeting in Bloomington, Indiana. This article appeared on the "Staten Island Advance" on September 22, 1965, page 21.

This article in part reads as follows:

"BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - College campus activists opposed to the war in Viet Nam are mapping plans for a nationwide student anti-draft drive this fall.

"The plans are being spearheaded by the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), a three-year-old group with more than 100 campus chapters. It is regarded as the intellectual fountain of the new American left.

"About 60 members of the SDS national council planned the drive at a week-long meeting just concluded at a campsite in McCormick's Creek State Park about 15 miles west of the Indiana University campus.

CG 100-42010

"They are recommending to their membership that draft age students and recent graduates try to stall the drafting mechanism by filing by the hundreds and thousands for exempt status as conscientious objectors.

"The SDS National Council, in the marathon camp meeting just concluded, has decided the group should de-emphasize mass demonstrations this fall and get back to performing its original function as the intellectual source book for other radical protest groups.

Plans for the anti-draft drive call for the writing of papers and pamphlets that not only will tell potential draftees on America's campuses how to beat the draft but why, in SDS view, they should try.

"Carl Oglesby, bearded 30 year-old president of SDS and a graduate of the University of Michigan, explained the council's decision in an interview at the campsite:

"Too many people who march have a gut reaction against the war in Viet Nam. We respect it, but we take note of the fact that all of the people who came to the march on Washington in April wouldn't be able to stand up to debate with McGeorge Bundy (President Johnson's national security adviser). It's our idea to bring thought and action into congruence. Our action programs will be those in which a man is compelled by the way he thinks about the world."

CG 6893-S* related on August 8, 1965, that CARL OGLESBY had decided to stay in Ann Arbor and will not be moving to Chicago. In view of the above, no further investigation is being conducted and this case is being considered RUC. Chicago will remain alert for pertinent information developed concerning OGLESBY and such information will be furnished to the Bureau and the Detroit Division.

[redacted] described it as a tremendous play which should establish OGLESBY as a significant American playwright comparable to ARTHUR MILLER. He stated that the play is done on a spiritual plane, similar to the recent play "J. B." He described it as a modern epic classic drama, similar to Greek drama, and concerns the struggle of man with his guilt and redemption. It utilizes CHRIST as a symbol of a redeemed man. OGLESBY has characterized one of the secondary characters as "an FBI Agent for God." It is not a political play or an anti-war play and it has no subversive ramifications.

[redacted] OGLESBY's first play
"The Wind is No Wilder," [redacted]

[redacted] following his receipt of the favorable reviews of this play, "The Peacemakers," which has anti-war overtones and is based on the Hatfields-McCoys feud. He knows that another of OGLESBY's plays "Season of the Beast" was produced in Texas in recent years, but he is not familiar with this work. [redacted] felt that all of OGLESBY's plays are valid as plays and not because of any protest theme.

b6

b7D

[redacted] is non-political, has no sympathy for communism or any other subversive organization and neither has [redacted]. It was at [redacted] residence in December, 1963, or January, 1964, that OGLESBY met certain Cuban nationalists who had fled CASTRO's Cuba and who spoke of their dislike of CASTRO.

OGLESBY had previously defended CASTRO's action in Cuba and when [redacted] pointed out that the Cubans present had called CASTRO a bum, OGLESBY replied only that anyone can turn out to be a bum.

b6
b7D

[redacted] stated that some of OGLESBY's East Coast friends, identities unknown, turned up at the backers' audition and these persons turned out to be similar to OGLESBY's friends at the University of Michigan whom he had met at a social gathering previously mentioned. All of these friends impressed [redacted] as quite "left wing" in their sympathies although none of them indicated direct sympathy for the Communist Party.

stated that the subject's employment could correctly be listed as president of the SDS and playwright, and that OGLESBY makes no secret of his connection and complete sympathy with the SDS. b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] reiterated that he, himself, had no sympathy for communism or for the subject's political beliefs. He stated that he was available for contact at any time in Los Angeles or in New York City for information concerning the subject. OGLESBY has no agent to date but [redacted]

Captioned program was heard locally over WMAL-TV, Channel 7, at 1:30 p.m., yesterday and monitored by SA [redacted] of the Crime Research Section.

b7c

The program was billed as presenting the two opposing views of young people in the United States today and featured Tom C. Huston, National Chairman, Young Americans for Freedom, and Carl Oglesby, President, Students for a Democratic Society.

Oglesby presented the view of his organization which holds that the United States is the aggressor in Vietnam and that we should promptly discontinue our military activity in that country. He said that publicly the position of the United States has been that we are only bombing strategic targets in Vietnam, however, he alleged that it is well known that we have gone out of our way to bomb villages and other targets which have no military significance. He cited, as an example, the alleged wiping out of a leper colony by American planes recently. He went into a long harangue about the use of napalm and other types of bombs and said, "We feel we can raise a good question as to whether the United States is guilty of war crimes."

Oglesby said that his organization did not encourage the burning of draft cards, but neither did it oppose it. He described the draft card burner as a "moral witness" and said that these individuals were merely acting in accordance with their own consciences. He said this situation raised a good question as to whether the state has the right to violate the "conscience" of its citizens and enforce criminal penalties against those who destroy their draft cards.

Huston said there was no doubt that the majority of good Americans supported the Administration's position in Vietnam and it was clear to every thinking American that there was only one aggressor: the Viet Cong. He said that the American objective was to help the Vietnamese help themselves. He pointed out that the Viet Cong did not represent a true political body and that it was not engaged in a genuine war of revolution because it was well known that the Viet Cong was a mere agent representing the interest of Red China.

He characterized as ridiculous the assertion that United States forces have deliberately concentrated on civilian targets and he dwelled at some length on the use of tear gas, stating that it was by far the most humane method of warfare and that it was just silly to condemn our fighting men for using it. He said that he had conferred with leaders in many countries of Free Asia recently and that they were all solidly behind United States policies in Vietnam.

He said that his organization realized there was a need to counter the effects created by a very vocal minority recently and that his organization was now planning a series of nationwide demonstrations and programs to alert the people of the world that the vast majority of Americans strongly supported our present commitment in Vietnam.

Memorandum

TO : Mr. DeLoach

DATE: 11-2-65

FROM : M. A. Jones

SUBJECT: CARL OGLESBY
PRESIDENT
STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Reference is made to my memorandum to you of 11-1-65 concerning a television program presented by the American Broadcasting Company on 10-31-65 featuring captioned individual and a Tom Huston, Young Americans For Freedom. Oglesby criticized U.S. policy in Vietnam. Mr. Hoover asked "What do we know of Oglesby?"

CARL OGLESBY:

Carl Oglesby, 30 years of age, is a graduate of the University of Michigan, having secured a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in English in 1962. Oglesby has also been employed as a technical writer for Bendix Systems Division in Ann Arbor, Michigan, from 1958 to 1965. He left the firm to assume the national presidency of the Students For a Democratic Society in June, 1965.

While Oglesby has not been a student or member of the faculty at the University of Michigan since 1962, he has been active in campus activities there since that time. For example, he was active in the original teach-in at the University in March, 1965; he also participated in subsequent teach-ins held on May 15, 1965, in Washington, D. C., and September 18, 1965.

When Oglesby took over as President of the Students For a Democratic Society, he indicated that this organization was considering plans--including possible deliberate violations of U.S. espionage laws--to try to force the Government to defend its Vietnam position in court. Oglesby made a trip to South Vietnam in July, 1965, and on his return reported that political groups in Saigon, both left and right, were critical of our policy there. Oglesby also traveled to Japan in August, 1965, and participated in a teach-in there relating to peace in Vietnam. The Far Eastern trip was under the sponsorship of the Inter-University Committee for Debate on Foreign Policy (the group sponsoring the teach-ins). Oglesby has been traveling extensively in connection with his position with the Students For a Democratic Society. He recently held a press conference in D. C. in which he set forth his anti-U.S. policy attitude.

CASE X-101 ①
CARL PESTON OGLESBY, JR.
SECURITY MATTER - SDS

Re mylet 10/25/65.

Detroit should expedite submission of FD-122 recommending subject's inclusion on the Security Index.

The following is submitted for information purposes only:

On 10/31/65 at 1:30 p.m. on television station WMAL, Channel 7, Washington, D. C., subject appeared on the program "Issues and Answers." This program was billed as presenting two opposing views of young people in the United States today and featured Tom C. Huston, National Chairman, Young Americans for Freedom, and Carl Oglesby, President, Students for a Democratic Society (SDS).

During this program, Oglesby presented the view of his organization which holds that the United States is the aggressor in Vietnam and that we should promptly discontinue our military activity in that country. He said that publicly the position of the United States has been that we are only bombing strategic targets in Vietnam, however, he alleged that it is well known that we have gone out of our way to bomb villages and other targets which have no military significance. He cited, as an example, the alleged wiping out of a leper colony by American planes recently. He went into a long harangue about the use of napalm and other types of bombs and said, "We feel we can raise a good question as to whether the United States is guilty of war crimes."

Oglesby said that his organization did not encourage the burning of draft cards, but neither did it oppose it. He described the draft card burner as a "moral witness" and said that these individuals were merely acting in accordance with their own consciences. He said this situation raised a good question as to whether the state has the right to violate the "conscience" of its citizens and enforce criminal penalties against those who destroy their draft cards.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Detroit, Michigan
November 6, 1965

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Re: Carl Preston Oglesby, Jr.

On November 5, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he attended a meeting sponsored by the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) on the University of Michigan Campus, Ann Arbor, Michigan, that was held at the South Quadrangle Dining Hall Number Two at 8:30 PM, that date.

The principal speaker at this meeting was Carl Preston Oglesby, Jr., National President of SDS, and the title of his lecture was "The Meaning of Vietnam".

The source advised that Oglesby's lecture was very brief and seemed to have very little in common with the title. He said the meeting began at approximately 8:45-8:50 PM and lasted until 10:30 PM.

The source indicated that the last hour and one-half of this meeting was devoted to a question and answer period in which the audience, composed of what appeared to be mostly students, numbering 100-150, asked Oglesby questions that were answered by Oglesby. Oglesby also injected questions to the audience at which time certain members present attempted to answer.

The source advised that not one word was mentioned about the Conscientious Objector Program in regard to the draft.

The source stated that Oglesby stated many times during this question and answer period that the SDS policy was one of participatory democracy. Oglesby explained this as follows:

"When an assembled group meets such as this very group this evening, they independently discuss the current political and social issues."

Re: Carl Preston Oglesby, Jr.

The source said that Oglesby advised the group that SDS now has a broad program in which there is formed a National Speakers Committee. He said this committee is staffed with approximately twenty speakers that are about to travel throughout the country representing SDS and independently will discuss the SDS policies and their beliefs.

The source said that Oglesby further told the assembled group that the primary purpose of the speakers was his primary purpose. That being, not to create an argument or to create dissension or to arise hostility in people, but to independently raise thought provoking questions for discussion in a manner that would be beneficial to all.

The source advised that most of the students present appeared to be normal college students and he saw only one unkempt beatnik-type student that was wearing a beard.

WASHINGTON CLOSE-UP*Peace Marcher Asks U.S. Changes

By PAUL HOPE

Perhaps to most of those participating in the peace march on Washington last week the paramount issue was ending the war in Viet Nam. But if this is so they were being used by at least one group that seems more interested in changing the American way of life than in bringing home the boys.

In the news stories on the demonstration, the words of Carl Oglesby, who spoke near the end of a lengthy program, received scant attention.

Oglesby is president of Students for a Democratic Society, a left-wing group whose constitution says it is composed of "liberals and radicals, activists and scholars, students and faculty" united to work toward a society in which "the people have control of the decisions which affect them and the resources on which they are dependent."

In his speech on the Washington Monument grounds, Oglesby, a bearded man of 30, denounced "free enterprise" and the "American corporate system." He said people in the United States should be ashamed they live so well.

"With about 5 percent of the world's people, we consume half the world's goods," said Oglesby. "On the face of it, it is a crime that so few should have so much at the expense of so many . . . How intolerable—to be born moral, but addicted to a stolen and maybe surplus luxurys."

Oglesby said the United States invented the "ideology of anti-communism" to hold together its "twin need for richness and righteousness."

He said the Communist Viet Cong are fighting "a revolution as honest as they come" but that American leaders will not recognize this because they must "safeguard what they take to be American interests around the world against revolution or revolutionary change." He said the "anti-Communist ideology merely tries to disguise (revolution) so that things may stay the way they are."

Oglesby described the "men who now engineer" the Viet Nam war—President Johnson, Robert McNamara, Dean Rusk, McGeorge Bundy, Henry Cabot Lodge, Arthur Goldberg—as "all liberals" but not Oglesby's kind of liberal.

Oglesby observed that if he sounded anti-American "don't blame me for that. Blame those who mouthed my liberal values and broke my American heart."

To Oglesby the issue in this country is "corporate liberalism" versus "humanist liberalism."

He put the question bluntly to the 25,000 at the Washington peace march "Corporatism or humanism: Which? For it has come to that . . . Will you be a grudging apologist for the corporate state? Or will you help try to change it? . . . We are dealing now with a colossus that does not want to be changed. It will not change itself."

Students for a Democratic System is the successor to the Intercollegiate Socialist Society and has grown from 200 members in 1960 to a claimed membership of 2,000 in 70 chapters.

It held a five-day convention last June in Michigan. Among those attending the convention were representatives of the Communist party, USA, and several groups of the radical left.

One delegate proposed an emergency crisis program to completely tie-up everything in Washington, D.C. Another proposed a "fast-in" at President Johnson's ranch. The national secretary, Clark Kissinger, advocated that SDS deliberately violate the Espionage Act of 1917 to force a trial to disclose the political issues of the Viet Nam war and related issues.

At that convention, one of Oglesby's comments was, "When we have this Utopia where everybody only works two hours a day, the process of redistribution of power and economy will take care of themselves."

He said further, "We are a socialist youth organization and consider ourselves a revolutionary organization whose members do not believe society can be reformed as it presently exists."

This was the man whose speech received a bigger ovation than any other at last week's march on Washington.

DE 100-33032

Reference is made to report of SA J. RAYMOND COGHLAN, at Detroit, dated 10/8/65.

Available data concerning the subject has been set out in referenced Detroit summary report on this subject.

His residence address has subsequently been verified through investigation at the Ann Arbor address indicated and it is noted that while his employment continues as President for SDS, Chicago, Illinois, that address is set forth on attached FD-122 simply for administrative purposes, it being noted that subject is not physically located at Chicago, Illinois. Investigation conducted to date indicates his intention to retain his residence at Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Reference is made to Bureau letters to Detroit, dated 10/25/65 and 11/12/65, requesting that Detroit submit FD-122 recommending subject for the Security Index.

Regarding attached recommendation for inclusion of the subject in Security Index, it is noted that available information indicates no past subversive activities on the part of subject which places him in membership with any basic revolutionary organization. Additionally, available information does not place him in a leadership capacity with any basic front organization.

Subject assumed the Presidency of the SDS, in June, 1965, and had no known association with that organization prior to that date; therefore, the entire program of the SDS organization may not be placed against this subject as its present president.

It is believed that the subject in his known activities fits partially in Sections "C" and "D", Page 45, Section 87D, Manual of Instructions, in that indications of his revolutionary beliefs and leadership capacity in recent months with the SDS in its various irresponsible activities nationally would reasonably predict that this subject in a time of national emergency would likely engage in activity contrary to the best interest of the United States Government.

Additionally, it is noted that not completely developed to date are possible "pro-Cuban" sympathies... on the part of the subject and his sentiments towards and recent travel to the area of Indo-China indicates the possibility of unusual pro-China or pro-North Vietnam sentiments on the part of this subject.

It is believed that in view of the potential dangerous of this subject considering his past significant employment in a research and development firm and his access of significant national defense information, it is believed that he should be included in the Security Index and should be tabbed Detcom.

It is noted that inasmuch as the recommendation for Security Index inclusion is based on subject's activities as determined through his SDS affiliation and Presidency, it is believed that at some future date when subject terminates his SDS leadership, an interview with him would appear to afford the best opportunity to determine his continued dangerousness and to determine whether he should remain on the Security Index.

Additionally, Oglesby in June 1965, has been publicly quoted as stating that his organization, the SDS, "is considering plans -- including possible deliberate violation of U. S. Espionage laws -- to try to force the government to defend its Viet Nam position in court."

In July 1965, he traveled to Viet Nam, where he reportedly conferred with representatives of the political arm of the Viet Cong.

Re: Carl Preston Oglesby

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 5, 1966 that Carl Oglesby continues his residence at Ann Arbor, Michigan, and is employed as President of the National Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) organization. He has been in an almost "constant travel" status since assuming the presidency of the SDS organization in June, 1965, and has indicated that when his term expires in summer, 1966, he expects to remain on at the University of Michigan (U of M), possibly teaching or otherwise employed there. (U)

A second source who has furnished insufficient information to determine reliability advised on March 9, 1966 that subject was employed as a technical editor with the Bendix Systems Division at Ann Arbor, Michigan for a six or seven year period prior to June, 1965, when he resigned that employment to become President of the SDS organization. He described subject as a brilliant employee, a writer and an "original thinker". He described him as a former "political liberal" whom he said developed politically into the "radical-left" during approximately the fall of 1964, coinciding with the national election of that year. Source advised that such turning point from a "liberal" to the "radical-left" appeared to be on the question of United States intervention in Viet Nam. (U)

He said the United States involvement in Viet Nam became a matter of personal serious concern to the subject who devoted increasing amounts of his time and attention to this problem. He became deeply engaged in political activity and considered political alternatives including the "Freedom Now Party" and various socialist political parties. In the fall of 1964, subject advised the source that he had become completely disgusted with the two major political parties and had decided to vote the Socialist Workers Party ticket in November, 1964. (U)

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Re: Carl Preston Oglesby

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

At that time, according to the source, subject, whose prior interest had been almost completely in the area of writing and drama, experienced some personal reverses in his artistic line and said that he was tired of his employment saying he wished no longer to be employed with the "war industrial complex" work in which he was engaged. He said he wished to do positive work in the Arms Control and Disarmament area which at that time was a research project being done by the Bendix Systems Division at Ann Arbor. Subject although not employed with this Arms Control and Disarmament contract, completely on his own, wrote an unsolicited proposal regarding the Arms Control question and submitted it to the Arms Control and Disarmament personnel at his firm for review with a request that he be transferred to employment under that project.

When his proposal was not well received and his transfer to the Arms Control project was denied, subject announced his intention to resign his employment. At that time he said he intended to go to work full time for the SDS organization.

Source noted that in this Bendix employment, subject had been earning something in excess of $10,000.00 a year and announced with his resignation that in his new SDS employment he would be making something on the order of $90.00 a week.

Subject decided against moving to Chicago, Illinois where the SDS headquarters are located because he did not wish to sever his U of M connections. In this connection, subject noted that he had taken this position with SDS on condition that he would be primarily engaged in research to support SDS programs. He said he decided that the Ann Arbor area provided him with the best environment for that work. He noted his access to faculty at the U of M, to the excellent library facilities and other general environment, all of which he considered important in his work. Source noted that subject has subsequently said that despite the fact he undertook this SDS employment primarily with the research aspect in mind that he has had little time to do research or any writing and has found himself in an almost constant travel status making appearances throughout the country for SDS.

Source advised that the subject as an author and playwright is regarded by professionals as a professional. He added that to his knowledge subject has written and has had produced some three plays all of which were given critical approval. He described subject as very dramatic in his activities and described subject as an excellent actor who displays a flair for the dramatic in almost everything he undertakes.

He further described subject as an acknowledged atheist and a socialist in his general philosophy. He said, however, that he does not regard the subject as a "radical" and he said he knew subject sufficiently well to know that subject has no inclination toward violence nor the advocacy of violence. He described subject as primarily a "humanitarian". He said the subject has frequently discussed the principle made in the Nuerenberg War Crimes Trials, i.e., the idea that a citizen has an obligation to all of mankind, and that such obligation is superior to a citizen's obligation to his own nation when he finds its laws to be immoral. (U)

Source advised that subject associates primarily with what are commonly described as "beatniks", subject having told him that he generally finds the philosophy of such individuals to be most closely attuned to his own personal philosophy. (U)

Subject has described himself to source as somewhat of a "figurehead" president of SDS explaining that he thinks of himself more as a thinker, writer and speaker for the SDS organization rather than one who has any concern with setting policy. He said he does not run the affairs of the SDS organization. In this connection he advised source that he aligns himself with U of M faculty associates in "counseling" the SDS organization rather than "running it". (U)

With reference to subject's former employment at Bendix Systems Division, Ann Arbor, where he held a "secret" security clearance in that employment, source advised that he knew subject to have been employed as a "technical-editor" in that employment and that because of that employment subject reviewed much of the important printed results of research done by that firm in order to approve it for clarity, grammatical content, etc. Source added that he knew the subject was not scientifically or technically trained and he said that for this reason he doubted that the subject would have had the ability to absorb much of the results of such research. (U)

Source added that to his knowledge subject personally reviewed only the most important of the research results being processed through the technical editor section, of which subject served as supervisor. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Re: Carl Preston Oglesby

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Source advised that in this employment at Bendix Systems Division he knew that the subject of necessity had access to very important security information of United States Government origin. In this connection he said he regards the subject as a person of high personal integrity and of complete responsibility. He added that he did not believe that the subject would compromise any security information in this connection. He cautioned, however, that because of subject's personal philosophy of "humanitarism" and his frequent reference to the principals of the "Neurenberg Trials" subject might be able to justify to himself using information confidentially obtained if he personally were convinced that in doing so he could avert injury to "humanity". (U)

Source advised that he believed the subject to be a loyal United States citizen. He said that he assumed that while the subject is dedicated in his activities to changing conditions in the United States that he is not advocating nor interested in the "overthrow" of the United States Government or of the United States system. Subject has constantly stated to the source in the past his interest in improvement in the United States system and has stated his convictions that in the work of the "New Left" appropriate changes in the United States system both domestically and inter-nationally may result; through close knowledge and association, source said he is convinced that subject is interested in "changing the system" and not in "destroying the system". (U)

Source reiterated that he would qualify his description of the subject as a loyal United States citizen by emphasizing subject's personal philosophy to include consideration that mankind owes loyalty to humanity greater than his national loyalty. (U)

Source advised that subject is most interested in possible political activity in the near future and of the consideration by SDS and the "New Left" to sponsor a candidate for public office possibly for the office of United States Congressman in Michigan who would presumably run as an "independent". Subject explained to source that such activity is considered because of the disenchantment of members of the "New Left" with United States Congressmen on the Viet Nam question. Source added that his group had canvassed all of the U of M faculty recently active in the Viet Nam protest type activities and none of them was willing to undertake such a campaign. He stated his disappointment that none of these (U) individuals would "risk their reputation" in this fashion and said that he is being encouraged personally to undertake such candidacy. He specifically said that he does not wish to entertain such a campaign but that he may take on such candidacy if no other likely candidate can be obtained.

Re: Carl Preston Oglesby

(b)

In discussing the logic behind such a political move, source advised that subject said the group knew they could not win in such political campaign and assumed that any "New Left" candidate could not receive a significant amount of support. He said the intention of the group in undertaking such a campaign would be to "teach the liberals that they must listen to the New Left" in order to continue to receive the support of the "New Left".

(b)

A third source with whom insufficient contact has been had to establish reliability, advised on May 2, 1966 that he was well acquainted with subject during subject's employment with Bendix Systems Division, Ann Arbor, Michigan from approximately 1959 - 1965. He said in the earlier period, subject impressed him as a normal adjusted moral individual of great competence. He increasingly displayed an almost complete concentration in political matters and at the development of the Cuban Crisis and in the period building up to it in the arrival of Fidel Castro on the scene in Cuba, subject increasingly stated his admiration for Fidel Castro. With the Gulf of Tonkin incident in 1964, subject became personally, deeply concerned in the incident, stated his criticism of United States presence and involvement in that area of the world and stated his admiration for the Chinese in terms that cause the source to regard subject as "pro Communist China" as well as "pro Cuba".

By 1964, there was a marked change in the subject whom source then believed to be abnormal, immoral, and "increasingly radical" in his political philosophy. He was at that time known to the source to be dating various women, other than his wife, and source knew him [redacted]

[redacted] Additionally b7D
he changed completely in his political philosophy from that of a "respectable liberal" to a person with "revolutionary beliefs and statements". In his discussion he showed himself to be completely "anti-capitalist", and almost abnormally "anti-military". He similarly developed a completely "anti-religious" attitude and almost repeatedly day after day spoke critically of the American Capitalist System, the military industrial complex, and similarly spoke in a derogatory fashion

(b)

Re: Carl Preston Oglesby

toward all organized religion. In the fall of 1964, subject advised source that he voted "as far left" as he was permitted in the national election of 1964. (U)

Source described subject as completely an internationalist (U) who constantly states high concern for world humanity.

Source advised that the subject in his employment at Bendix Systems Division was most interested in Arms Control and Disarmament matters and showed great interest in becoming employed in that area of Bendix research, unsuccessfully. (U)

Source advised that subject advised him many months before his eventual resignation from Bendix Systems Division that he was resigning to accept full time employment with the SDS organization in the summer of 1965. (U)

With reference to subject's employment with Bendix Systems Division, which the source described as previously sensitive employment, source made the following observations: (U) The subject had access to very sensitive internal security information and showed great interest in Arms Control matters.

The subject in this employment assigned to himself the more sensitive assignments being handled by his technical editing staff at Bendix. (U)

The subject to the source's knowledge displayed a personal philosophy of having a duty to humanity greater than his loyalty as a United States citizen. (U)

Source believed that subject might use any information in his possession to any use subject felt might be helpful to aid in achieving world peace, irrespective of the best interests of the United States. (U)

Source does not regard the subject to be a loyal United States citizen and believes him to hold little or no allegiance to the United States, subject having regarded himself as a "citizen of the world". (U)

Subject was not technically trained and source does not believe that subject gained in this Bendix employment information of technical value involving national defense. (U)

Source believed subject gained significant national defense information which if divulged would be of value to potential enemies of the United States. (U)

Re: Carl Preston Oglesby

APPENDIX

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

A source advised on February 22, 1964, that at a meeting of the Portland (Oregon) Communist Party Youth Club held on February 20, 1964, a report was given by JAMES R. BERLAND of the Reed College Communist Party Youth Club concerning a meeting of the National Party Youth Commission (Communist Party) previously held in New York City. BERLAND reported that one of the four main points taken up in the New York City meeting concerned the SDS and its problems. BERLAND indicated that SDS was weak nationally but some local chapters were strong. It was noted that the SDS has an incorrect political orientation, being too far left on some issues and not far enough on others, and that the SDS does not follow the Marxist theory for the most part. One speaker said that the Party could work through SDS to achieve the aims of the Communist Party.

As a result of this meeting of the National Party Youth Commission, it was decided to work through SDS where there are strong local SDS chapters.

Referenced Chicago airtel under the caption "GUS HALL; IS-C, ISA of 1950" sets forth information obtained from CG 5824-S* as furnished to Chicago 5/7-8/66. This information concerns a contact between GUS HALL of the Communist Party, USA, with subject in Michigan in May, 1966 where, in a private discussion, HALL reportedly invited CARL OGLESBY to attend the forthcoming National Convention of the Communist Party as a guest and where subject reportedly accepted the invitation noting he would make every effort to attend. In this contact, OGLESBY reportedly made the remark, not further explained by him, that in OGLESBY's opinion the "SDS is now in the hands of lunatics". In this contact, additionally OGLESBY reportedly told HALL that he would soon be going to Puerto Rico where he was to talk to some Peace Corps trainees on behalf of the United States Department of State. (U) (P)

CHICAGO CAUTIONED THAT EXTREME CARE MUST BE UTILIZED IN CONNECTION WITH THE HANDLING OF THE ABOVE INFORMATION RECEIVED FROM CG 5824-S* IN ORDER TO PROTECT THE IDENTITY OF THIS HIGHLY PLACED SOURCE. Referenced Bureau letter instructed Detroit to closely follow subject's alleged establishment of a Students for a Democratic Society chapter at a Peace Corps camp in Puerto Rico and to submit report promptly. Instant report is submitted pursuant to Bureau instruction. (U)

Referenced Bureau letter also instructed Detroit that this case was to receive close, prompt and continuous attention and that Detroit must be aware of subject's whereabouts and activities at all times. (U)

Illinois. He maintains an Ann Arbor, Michigan residence, however, sources have referred to marital difficulties and to fact that subject is rarely at his Ann Arbor, Michigan residence. Sources have described him as in an almost constant travel status making appearances for the Students for a Democratic Society organization, with such arrangements made by or through the Students for a Democratic Society organization in Chicago. Investigation has determined that subject had little involvement with leaders of the Students for a Democratic Society chapter organization at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Detroit requested Bureau authority to interview subject's [redacted] at Ann Arbor, Michigan with a view toward developing this individual as a source. Bureau denied Detroit's request noting [redacted]

DETAILS: AT ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN

Confidential informant DE T-1 advised on June 19, 1966 that subject continues to maintain his residence as 803 McKinley Street, Ann Arbor, Michigan and continues his employment as president of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS). (U)

DE T-1 said that the subject complains somewhat of being in an almost constant travel status in connection with employment as president of the SDS. Informant noted that subject also refers to himself as a "figurehead" president of the SDS organization. In this connection, subject has stated that he does not establish policy or direct the activities of the SDS organization, but rather serves as its official representative. (U)

CPO-138

DE T-1 described subject's function as principally making appearances on behalf of SDS, with such appearances principally arranged by or through the SDS National Office in Chicago, Illinois. (U)

DE T-1 advised that the subject claims to receive little or no salary from SDS, and claims that he makes his living principally on payments received by him for his personal appearances, speeches, etc. with his expenses in connection with such appearances being borne either by the sponsoring organization for the appearance or by the SDS. (U)

DE T-1 advised that he had no information indicating any 1966 travel on the part of the subject outside of the continental limits of the United States. He advised that he was of the impression that the subject has, however, appeared as an SDS representative, and made speeches on behalf of SDS at points throughout the United States during most of his one year term as president of the SDS organization. (U)

Confidential informant DE T-2 advised May 26, 1966 that he had learned from a source he regarded as reliable that this source in a personal contact with the subject May 19, 1966 was told by the subject that subject had just returned from Puerto Rico where he claimed to have addressed a group of Peace Corps trainees on the subject of "Revolution in South America" and where he claimed to have been permitted to establish a SDS chapter at a Peace Corps camp in Puerto Rico. (U)

DE T-2 advised that his source as referred to above advised him that in conversations with the subject this source regarded subject as "beyond question a Communist" but the source stated he was uncertain as to whether the subject could be described as a "national Communist" or as an "inter-national Communist". DE T-2 advised that his source in drawing this distinction explained that he did not believe a "national Communist" to necessarily be disloyal to his government. (U)

Confidential informant DE T-3 advised June 6, 1966 that he knew subject during April or May, 1966 to have visited Puerto Rico. DE T-3 advised that he had no information regarding the purpose of that travel; however, he stated he assumed the visit was in connection with official business for SDS, inasmuch as to the informant's knowledge all of subject's travel during 1965-1966 was arranged by or made on behalf of the SDS organization. (U)

DE 100-33032

DE T-3 noted that the subject is rarely in Ann Arbor, Michigan and knew subject to have expressed his regret at having assumed the SDS presidency role, primarily because of the tremendous demands on his time through traveling and personal appearances on behalf of the organization. DE T-3 stated that subject on taking the SDS presidency thought that he would be given the opportunity of doing some independent thinking and studying at the University of Michigan and of doing research work in connection with SDS activities. He cited this belief as his reason for remaining at Ann Arbor, Michigan rather than moving to Chicago, Illinois where the National Office of SDS is located. DE T-3 advised that subject anticipates dropping the presidency of the SDS organization, summer, 1966, after which time he anticipates settling at Ann Arbor, Michigan.

A characterization of the SDS is contained in the appendix hereto.

APPENDIX

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

A source advised on February 22, 1964, that at a meeting of the Portland (Oregon) Communist Party Youth Club held on February 20, 1964, a report was given by JAMES R. BERLAND of the Reed College Communist Party Youth Club concerning a meeting of the National Party Youth Commission (Communist Party) previously held in New York City. BERLAND reported that one of the four main points taken up in the New York City meeting concerned the SDS and its problems. BERLAND indicated that SDS was weak nationally but some local chapters were strong. It was noted that the SDS has an incorrect political orientation, being too far left on some issues and not far enough on others, and that the SDS does not follow the Marxist theory for the most part. One speaker said that the Party could work through SDS to achieve the aims of the Communist Party.

As a result of this meeting of the National Party Youth Commission, it was decided to work through SDS where there are strong local SDS chapters.

SUBJECT: CARL PRESTON OGLESBY, JR.

(OO:DETROIT)

DATE: 9/6/66

Re San Juan letter to Bureau dated 7/14/66.

The following investigation was conducted by SA THOMAS H. GREENE at Peace Corps Camp, Crozier, Puerto Rico on 8/9/66:

[redacted] assigned to Camp Crozier, was contacted for information regarding CARL PRESTON OGLESBY, JR.
[redacted] advised that not too many persons are still at the camp who were there during the spring of 1966 when one of their guest speakers was Mr. OGLESBY. She stated OGLESBY's name was given to her [redacted]

[redacted] at the camp. She had no idea how or when OGLESBY's name came to the attention [redacted] but does know that OGLESBY obtained some publicity in the Chicago, Illinois, area in connection with community development work.

According to her records, OGLESBY came to the camp about 5/1/66 and stayed about three days, speaking and having seminars with the trainees, and then left. The camp is a small unit, isolated from the surrounding area, and if any group or organization had been formed at the camp she is sure that the word would have gotten around. She has never heard of anything which would indicate that OGLESBY formed a group connected with the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), at the camp.

Re: Carl Preston Oglesby, Jr.

DE T-1 advised that Oglesby, as of September 1, 1965, continued residence at Ann Arbor, Michigan, at 803 McKinley Street. (U)

DE T-1 advised that the subject, in the period June, 1965, through August, 1966, held the position of President of the SDS organization, headquarters for which organization are located at Chicago, Illinois. DE T-1 advised that during that period, Oglesby was reportedly in an almost constant travel status, throughout the United States and abroad, making appearances for the SDS organization. He noted that despite Oglesby's employment for a Chicago headquarters organization, Oglesby maintained his family at Ann Arbor, Michigan, during his SDS employment. (U)

"The Michigan Daily", a student publication of the University of Michigan (UM), Ann Arbor, Michigan, in an article dated June 16, 1965, entitled, "SDS Convention Explores Educational Policies", concludes with a statement that at the close of the plenary session of the National Convention of the SDS held at Kewadin, Michigan, June, 1965, Carl Oglesby was elected to the SDS Presidency. The article describes Oglesby as 30 years of age, as a graduate of the UM and noted that in 1961, he was awarded a major Hopwood drama award at the UM. The article also notes that Oglesby was the fifth SDS National President in a row to have been a former student of the UM. (U)

The "Ann Arbor News", a daily newspaper published at Ann Arbor, Michigan, under date June 15, 1965, carried an article entitled, "Three Actions Set in Protest Movement". This article states, in part, as follows: (U)

"Carl Oglesby of Ann Arbor, newly elected president of the national Students for a Democratic Society said in Kewadin, near Traverse City, that the society is considering plans -- including possible deliberate violation of U.S. espionage laws -- to try to force the government to defend its Viet Nam position in court. (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Re: Carl Preston Oglesby, Jr.

"Up to 200 U-M students belong to the society and Oglesby, 29 year-old U-M graduate, said that if the society's council approves the plan, it still would have to be voted on by the group's 2,000 members. (U)

"It occurred to us that it may be a good idea to put the Administration into a trial situation," Oglesby said. "One way would be through a deliberate infraction of the 1917 Espionage Act." (U)

Oglesby said the act forbids the advocacy that a member of the U.S. Armed Forces desert the army or refuse to do battle for the country. (U)

Oglesby added one method of attacking the act would be to distribute pamphlets in or near Army bases urging soldiers to refuse to fight in Viet Nam." (U)

DE T-2 advised on June 15, 1965, that at the 1965 National Convention of the SDS, Oglesby addressed the convention explaining what his workshop had covered. DE T-2 stated that his comments in the address were, in part, as follows: (U)

"Philosophy of SDS involvement in foreign policy issue -- we decided SDS should be involved in foreign policy and given what we want to educate ourselves in this political involvement. We should understand with whom we deal and how they relate to life and politics in this country. We build movements around things that affect people, as with Vietnam and the Dominican Republic. To live in the United States now is not to have the opportunity for total involvement in cold war issues. (U)

"Vietnam was thrust upon us and we didn't have time to decide, but South Africa is different, it is our creation. SDS does not want to be in a position where they simply respond to some new outrage of the (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Re: Carl Preston Oglesby, Jr.

"Johnson Administration. SDS should relate to this ferment not by becoming an advocate of the cold war but by turning this into a massive protest movement. SDS must attain some initiative not just react to whims of the government." (U)

Oglesby said there were some who felt "foreign policy for SDS was suicidal, impossible, ridiculous, or all three. While we want to be careful about associating with this or that country we still feel SDS should more closely associate themselves with issues which not only affect us at home but overseas. (U)

"People want to know if it is possible for the American government to make a decision overseas which we could officially endorse. (U)

"People want to know and discuss international communism." (U)

DE T-2 additionally advised that among numerous pamphlets distributed at this SDS convention was a pamphlet entitled, "The Vietnam War: World Revolution and American Containment" which identified its author as Carl Oglesby. (U)

The records of the Passport Office, United States Department of State, as of August 16, 1965, reflected that Passport Number F489267 had been issued to Carl Oglesby on June 29, 1965, at Chicago, Illinois. In his application for above passport, he stated his intention to travel to France, the Philippines and Japan, stating the purpose of such travel as "research and pleasure". (U)

DE T-3 advised in June, 1965, that Oglesby, in June, 1965, planned travel on an all expense paid "teach-in" type tour to Paris, Algiers and Saigon, South Vietnam. DE T-3 confirmed that Oglesby would be at above travel in summer, 1965, and additionally planned travel to Tokyo, Japan, if he made contact with undisclosed sources while in Saigon, South Vietnam. (U)

Re: Carl Preston Oglesby, Jr.

An article appeared in the "Ann Arbor News", referred to above, under date July 22, 1965, which article reports that Oglesby had returned the previous day from a trip to Vietnam and the article contains his observations obtained on that travel. (U)

DE T-3 advised on August 12, 1965, that Oglesby was on that date departing for Tokyo, Japan, to address a Tokyo "teach-in". (U)

DE T-4, a confidential source abroad, advised on August 20, 1965, that Oglesby entered Japan on August 14, 1965, from Chicago, Illinois, and departed Tokyo, Japan, for return to the United States August 16, 1965. This source advised that while in Tokyo, Oglesby resided at the Toshi Center Hotel and identified himself as a writer and as Chairman of the SDS. DE T-4 advised that Oglesby's [redacted]

An article appeared in the publication entitled, "Asahi" published at Tokyo, Japan, under date of August 15, 1965, concerning public ceremonies at Tokyo, Japan, for the "20th Armistice Day", August 14, 1965. The article refers to various events throughout the day followed by an "all night forum" on the topic of "war and peace", to be held at Tokyo, August 14 - 15, 1965. The article states that this "forum" was to include presentation of appeals for peace by several individuals, including Chairman Oglesby of the "Students Federation for a Democratic Society". (U)

DE T-3 advised on June 22, 1965, that Oglesby, in June, 1965, recognized an invitation to attend the World Press Congress at Helsinki, Finland, in August, 1965, but stated his uncertainty as to whether he would be able to appear. (U)

DE T-5 advised in March, 1966, that Oglesby, whom he described as well known to him, was regarded by him as a brilliant writer and as an "original thinker". He advised (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Re: Carl Preston Oglesby, Jr.

✓ that Oglesby developed from a "political liberal" to a member of the "radical left" during 1964, noting that the turning point in this change appeared to turn on the question of United States intervention in Vietnam. DE T-5 advised that Oglesby took up this question as of intense, personal serious concern at that time and deliberately alligned himself as far politically "left" as possible. DE T-5, in this connection, advised that Oglesby, in the fall of 1964, boasted that he had decided to vote at that time for the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) ticket in the November, 1964, election. (U)

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

DE T-5 advised that Oglesby resigned his employment at Bendix Systems Division, Ann Arbor, Michigan, summer, 1965, in order to make himself available full time to pursue the question of disengagement by the United States in the Vietnamese conflict. (U)

DE T-5 described the subject as an "atheist" and as a "socialist" and as completely sincere in his dedication toward the principles of the SDS organization. He noted that the subject undertook severe financial sacrifice in resigning his regular employment to assume the SDS Presidency. In that Presidency, DE T-5 advised Oglesby has been in a virtually constant travel status throughout the United States and abroad making appearances for, or in the interest to, the SDS organization. (S)

DE T-5 advised that Oglesby is a brilliant writer and a dramatic actor. He advised that Oglesby is a playwright of some success, having had three plays produced to date. He stated Oglesby is largely interested in the Nuerenberg tribunal of history and has developed a philosophy of justifying some activities of SDS along the lines of the "Nuerenberg principles". He stated that along this line, Oglesby holds that a citizen has an obligation to all of mankind, and that such obligation is superior to a citizen's obligation to his own nation when he finds its laws to be immoral. APPENDIX

A source advised on February 22, 1964, that at a meeting of the Portland (Oregon) Communist Party Youth Club held on February 20, 1964, a report was given by JAMES R. BERLAND of the Reed College Communist Party Youth Club concerning a meeting of the National Party Youth Commission (Communist Party) previously held in New York City. BERLAND reported that one of the four main points taken up in the New York City meeting concerned the SDS and its problems. BERLAND indicated that SDS was weak nationally but some local chapters were strong. It was noted that the SDS has an incorrect political orientation, being too far left on some issues and not far enough on others, and that the SDS does not follow the Marxist theory for the most part. One speaker said that the Party could work through SDS to achieve the aims of the Communist Party.

As a result of this meeting of the National Party Youth Commission, it was decided to work through SDS where there are strong local SDS chapters.

Information has come to her attention that the peace groups in Yellow Springs, Ohio, are planning to rent or purchase a larger building in Yellow Springs for a peace and freedom center which would service peace groups throughout the United States. (It is to be noted that the Dayton Area Coordinating Committee (DACC), is presently coordinating peace activities in the Yellow Springs, Ohio, area in a log cabin in the center of Yellow Springs measuring approximately 12' by 12'). Recently these groups discussed that since Yellow Springs is more centrally located and is basically a little town, it would be a better area to coordinate peace activities rather than Madison, Wisconsin. Supposedly Right Wing and "Fascist Groups" are giving the peace makers in Madison a "hard time". In Yellow Springs they could receive help from most residents in town, and there would be no local groups to harass them.

There is an indication that if they could obtain a peace center in Yellow Springs OGLESBY would stay in Yellow Springs for six months to one year to help coordinate all peace making activities, and thereby assist in making Yellow Springs the center of these activities in the United States.

It is to be noted that OGLESBY formerly president of SDS, was in Yellow Springs, Ohio, during September, 1966, giving talks to student groups and townspeople being headlined as the "Intellectual Leader of the Peace Movement".

The "Record", an Antioch College weekly newspaper dated 9/9/66, stated subject is a candidate for Community Government's Activist Scholar in Residence Post.

On 9/30/66 [redacted] (source),

[redacted] Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, advised to the best of her knowledge, subject not as yet employed by Community Government, Antioch College and there has been much debate within the college as to whether he should be given a paid position as Resident Activist Scholar.
